Bilingual Narrator, Emcee & Qualified Interpreter Guide

Yuko

Yuko was born in Canada and spent her childhood in Thailand, Japan and New Zealand. She speaks English with a British accent and New Zealand accent. Since Yuko is a qualified interpreter guide, she also delivers sightseeing guides in English.

Yuko's pronunciations are regarded as accurate in German as well as English. She has never been to Germany and German speaking countries although she became a winner of Japan

Secondary Schools German speech competition.

After attending Aoyama Gakuin University, Yuko worked as an event coordinator at Japan's leading convention centre, communicating in English and Japanese. Whenever there were clients from foreign countries, she took part as an interpreter for facility previews and meetings. Yuko enjoys meeting people and had also worked as a customer service agent at an airline.

For Yuko's announcement skills, she went to NHK Communications Training Institute and trained Japanese narrations, news readings and emcees from NHK announcers. She completed all advanced classes in 2013 and started working as a narrator and an emcee in events.

Yuko will deliver friendly and calm English and Japanese narrations and emcees with excellent pronunciation for you.
